

All displayed values are log-derived; normalized macro values are cross-checked against the raw memory checkpoint.

The follow-up is observational: all 100 agents act concurrently and no counterfactual isolates the focal action.